

YES Newsletter—April/May 2021

Mark your calendars for the 2021 ASCRS Annual Meeting

July 23–27, 2021

Mandalay Bay Convention Center

Las Vegas, Nevada

Residents and Fellows receive complimentary registration

Register Now!

<https://annualmeeting.ascrs.org/>

New Educational Opportunity—Sign Up for Free!

Residents and Fellows can register free of charge for the new ASCRS Glaucoma Building Blocks educational series. This four-episode series is designed to build a solid foundation in comprehensive glaucoma management from diagnosis through intervention options, all based on the latest medical knowledge and innovation. The series includes expert faculty with the opportunity for live audience Q&A at each episode.

“This four-episode series will provide the building blocks required for comprehensive glaucoma management—diagnostic advances, initial therapeutics, evolving compliance-independent treatments, MIGS, and more extensive surgical interventions—all in one compact, efficient course,” Thomas Samuelson, MD, program co-chair.

Learn more and register for this program.

Resident and Fellow Roundtables Sponsored by the ASCRS YES Committee

This monthly interactive learning experience will be led by two different ASCRS Young Eye Surgeon Committee members and will include case studies and encourage a lively discussion with all attendees engaging through video.

Please view previous roundtables on the YES webpage:

<https://ascrs.org/membership/young-eye-surgeons>

Next up:

Date: Tuesday, June 22nd at 7:00 EDT

Dr. Zaina Al-Mohtaseb and Dr. Manjool Shah

“The White Cataract”

Registration is very limited and will open on Tuesday, June 8, 2021

ASCRS Grand Rounds

ASCRS Grand Rounds is a virtual, complimentary CME offering exclusive to ASCRS membership that brings the experience of a live grand rounds to your home or office.

We have partnered with major academic institutions to present a monthly series of virtual grand rounds, each approved for 1.0 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™. View during a pre-scheduled time to engage live with the speakers or view previous Grand Rounds on demand at your convenience.

<https://ascrs.org/clinical-education/grand-rounds/schedule>

ASCRS Journal Club

A monthly series in which a panel of experts will discuss two pre-selected manuscripts from the Journal of Cataract & Refractive Surgery (JCRS). Nick Mamalis, MD, and Leela Raju, MD, will co-moderate these free CME sessions, open to all ASCRS members.

<https://ascrs.org/clinical-education/journal-club>

Ophthalmology Quicksand Chronicles: Did You Know We Have a Podcast?

Experience some of ophthalmology’s most skilled surgeons off the cuff as they give some insight into their personalities outside the OR and off the stage (or Zoom stage).

In *Ophthalmology Quicksand Chronicles*, an ASCRS podcast, the hosts—Nicole Fram, MD, and Elizabeth Yeu, MD—and an expert guest get vulnerable, sharing their “quicksand moment” in the OR. Quicksand moments are humbling, for sure, but the pearls and wisdom imparted by the hosts and guests show how these situations help surgeons evolve. Join the hundreds of viewers and listeners who have discovered Ophthalmology Quicksand Chronicles—watch, listen, subscribe.

Remember you can always find additional information and resources on our website.

<https://ascrs.org/membership/young-eye-surgeons>

Want to get involved with YES activities? Send us an e-mail and let us know!

yesquestions@ascrs.org